

The Mystery Maze

Prize Winners—Competition August 24

THERE were only two perfect answers to the puzzles of August 24. These came from Evelyn Wilkes, 350 Riverdale Avenue, Yonkers, N. Y., and Anna Friedman, 211 Halsey Street, Brooklyn, N. Y. To these two contestants the $2.00 prize will be sent.

Six contestants had only one minor error, and to them the $1.00 prize and the button are being forwarded: Leonard Price, 72 East Ninety-sixth Street, New York City; Paul Taylor, 421 West 121st Street, New York City; Melville Lobel, 57 East Ninety-sixth Street, New York City; Andrew Peters, Sunset Place, Amherst, Mass.; Grace Adams, Towaco, N. J., and Thelma Ramsay, Post Place, Whitestone, Long Island, N. Y.

Everybody agreed that a world without trees would be a dismal place to live in and an impossible place to imagine. Don't forget this and take the trees for granted; they are among the best friends we have.

CORRECT ANSWERS

Hydra-Headed Trees

1, Cherry-Sherry-Wherry; 2, Peach-Reach-Teach; 3, Pine-Line-Fine; 4, Palm-Calm-Balm; 5, Alder-Elder-Older; 6, Bay-Pay-May; 7, Holly-Folly-Jolly; 8, Willow-Billow-Pillow.

Baseball Term

1, Waste; 2, Flail; 3, Laces; 4, Cores; 5, Price; 6, Fifty; 7, Slice; 8, Faces; 9, Trees; 10, Ashes; 11, Chick; 12, Match. Sacrifice Hit.

Three New Puzzles

Ten cash prizes ($2.00 each) for the best answers to all three puzzles, together with 100 words on "What I Want to Do When I Grow Up," from children fifteen years and under. Answers must be received by September 30 and the results will be announced in The Children's Tribune of October 19. An Award Button will go to each new prize winner and to those deserving honorable mention. THE MYSTERY MAN.

Double Acrostic

All the words described contain the same number of letters. When rightly guessed and written one below another, the initial letters and the final letters will spell the young folks' slogan for September.

Cross words. 1—A capital city of the United States. 2—A covered recess at the side of a larger room. 3—One-tenth of a Roman legion—500 or 600 men. 4—The chief ingredient in porcelain. 5—A famous doubter. 6—A variety of black tea.

A Dozen Suggestive Birds

1. Which bird suggests fear?

2. Which suggests a letter of the alphabet?
3. Which suggests a dupe?
4. Which a useful trade?
5. Which a military officer?
6. Which a frolic?
7. Which an ancient musical instrument?
8. Which part of a plant?
9. Which suggests rapidity?
10. Which suggests supreme importance?
11. Which suggests a stupid person?
12. Which suggests boasting?

OCCUPATION PUZZLE

BY WALTER WELLMAN

